

Disorder2Order

PRICE LIST

Phone Consultation - $0.00

A free 30 minute phone consultation to evaluate the project and determine a plan of action is the first step.

Personal Assessment - $150.00

Sometimes clients just need a little advice, guidance or coaching to get through a project. A written plan of action with product suggestions can also be provided for a flat fee.

Hourly Service - $60.00/hour

All services are available by the hour. Depending on your budget and your needs I can establish a customized process for you. I will work with you or for you - - it's your decision.

Public Speaking - Rates are Negotiable

If you have a group or organization that you think would benefit from instruction from a professional, I am available to speak on a variety of topics. Time Management, Goal Setting, Everyday Organizing are just a few topics. There is no group to big or company too small.

Workshops - Packages Available

Workshops.. this is where the energy thrives! Creating a personal workshop to have the hands on one-to-one time with a professional organizer can benefit your group or organization in so many ways. Enhance your current curriculum or add a new service for your clients.

Long Term Support - Included

Once a job is completed, the support system is then put into place. If you have questions, need advice or product suggestions, you will have the long term support from me. The most important element to staying organized is maintenance and support.

All pricing is subject to change depending on the scope of the project. The following price list has been updated April 2007. Travel Time is not included into the above price list.

Megan M. Spears
Owner - Organizer
e: megans@disorder2order.com
w: www.disorder2order.com p: 503.318.2912

Disorder2Order ©